Complete copyright to the article entitled:

(hereinafter, "the article") is hereby transferred to the Turkish Society of Radiology (for United States government employees to the extent transferable), effective if and when the article is accepted for publication in Diagnostic and Interventional Radiology.

The copyright which the authors assign to the Turkish Society of Radiology encompasses all rights to exploit the article in any manner throughout the world. These rights include, but are not limited to, all print reproduction and publication rights and electronic publication rights, such as CD-ROM and online publication, as well as dissemination by any technology now known or later devised.

The author(s) retain all patent and other proprietary rights to the article, with exception of the copyright. If an author wishes to reproduce the article in any medium for distribution purposes, the author must obtain permission from the Turkish Society of Radiology and, if permission is granted, the author must credit the original source of publication when the article is reproduced.

The author(s) certify that:

1. The article does not infringe any personal or proprietary rights of others;
2. The editor-in-chief of Diagnostic and Interventional Radiology has been or will be informed of any proprietary or commercial interest or conflicts of interest the authors may have that relate directly or indirectly to the subject of this article;
3. The scientific content of radiologic images has not been altered, and that disclosure has been made regarding computer enhancement or other electronic manipulation of radiologic images;
4. The authors have made substantive and specific intellectual contributions to this article and assume full responsibility for its content;
5. This article has not been previously published and is not currently under consideration for publication elsewhere; and
6. This agreement has been signed by all of the authors who contributed to the article.
